

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

—Nice juicy steak and oysters at WELL'S.

—Miss Blanche Hurst, of Flemingsburg, arrived Saturday as the guests of the Misses Chanslor.

—The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a bazaar and all day sale of edibles Saturday, December 4.

—Miss Ruth McClintock entertained the Mission Study Class of the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon.

—Mrs. W. H. H. Conway and children spent Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Dallas at Carlisle.

—Miss Florence Chanslor and guest, Miss Blanche Hurst, of Flemingsburg, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. Berry Bedford, at Lexington.

—The banks and postoffice, Butler, Clark & Miller; Peale Collier & Co. closed their doors Thanksgiving day, other business houses were closed part of the day.

—The Young Ladies Mission Study Class of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar Thursday, December 2. Wait and get your Christmas presents.

—Mrs. Dalzell who has been the guest of relatives here for the past two months left for her home in Missouri Monday accompanied by her sister, Miss Nannie Burroughs.

—Mr. J. M. Caldwell left Saturday for Alberta, Canada, where he will close a deal for the purchase of a nine hundred acre ranch. He with his family will move there the latter part of the winter.

—Mrs. Sue V. Sandusky is painting and papering her storeroom recently vacated by T. D. Judy & Son, and when completed will be one of the nicest rooms in town. It is soon to be occupied by the Millersburg Pharmacy.

—The School Improvement League will give an old-fashioned blue-back spelling match at the public school building this evening beginning at 7:30. An admission charge of ten cents will be made at the door. Captains of the contending sides will be selected that evening. This will be followed by a box supper, the boxes being prepared by the young ladies, put up and sold to the highest bidder. The purchaser will have the pleasure of eating with the maiden whose dainty little fingers prepared the delightful lunch. The winner in the spelling match will be given a free box. If a man will eat with the lady who prepared it, if a lady, she will enjoy the society of the other girl's sweetheart for the remainder of the evening. Ladies do not be afraid to spell, for all our girls have sweethearts. Gentlemen, spell, for it you win you will enjoy the society of some sweet girl without impoverishing your purse. The School Improvement League has undertaken a noble work and all should lend a helping hand. Kentucky is at last waking up to the fact that the country school means something more than desks, water buckets, black boards, old fashioned stove and a straight back chair. Let us fall in line and get just a little in advance of the procession. Let every lady come, the little money you'd invest will do much good and you'll have a jolly time.

—You want to save money and win prizes. The way to do this is to get one of our gold stamp books which contains a tempting prize list. For every ten cent cash purchase you get a gold stamp. For further particulars call on Peale Collier, Jones Bros., Ingels Bros., M. P. Wells or Joe W. Mock.

—Jasper L. Douthitt, Manager, Lithia Chautauqua, Lithia, Ill.: Mr. Beilharz, for three years in succession has been on our program. In the estimation of our patrons from year to year. He gave "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" last year and was called to repeat it this year to an increased and admiring audience.

—The M. M. I. closed its doors Wednesday afternoon for the Thanksgiving holidays. Most of the student body and faculty leaving on the afternoon and evening trains for their homes where they will remain until Monday, when they will reopen Tuesday. The M. F. C. observed only Thanksgiving day the student body remaining here on account of the prevalence of diphtheria in so many places. A good time was tendered them in the institution with a big Thanksgiving dinner. The day was very pleasantly spent.

—The second number of the Lyceum, Thursday evening, Dec. 2. Mr. Noah

Beilharz in his popular monologue, "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," by Eggleston. He is a man of rare ability and intersperses art with humor. If you want to hear one who is not clannish and at the same time humorous you want Noah Beilharz. We have few unsold season tickets on hand which we will sell for the next four numbers at $100 each, positively there will be no season tickets sold after the second number.

Miss Anna Shipp Dead.

A telegram was received here yesterday announcing the death of Miss Anna W. Shipp at the home of her sister, Mrs. Newton Hutchison at Canon City, Colorado.

Miss Shipp was the daughter of the late Thos. J. Shipp, of Winchester, formerly of Millersburg. For a number of years she had made her home in Oklahoma City until about two years ago when her health began to fail and she went to old Mexico in the hope of regaining it. From there she had gone to various points in New Mexico and Colorado, but all efforts to recover her health proved futile. She was a member of the Methodist church and an estimable Christian. It may be truly said of her that "to know her is to love her."

Miss Shipp is survived by three sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Millard F. Kenney, Mrs. Charles E. Butler and Victor K. Shipp of this city, R. M. Shipp, of Winchester, Mrs. Newton Hutchison of Canon City Colorado, and Edwin T. Shipp, of Oklahoma City.

Ends Life in Horrible Manner.

J. Breck Smith threw himself under the wheels of an interurban car at Versailles. Tuesday morning with suicidal intent and was ground to death. The tragedy occurred at a prominent corner, and was witnessed by a large number of people.

Smith was standing in front of the court house, and when the car from Frankfort started to turn the corner, he ran and threw himself under it. His body was terribly mangled.

Smith was 56 years old, and well known throughout Central Kentucky. For several years he was in the real estate business at Lexington, and that before he lived at Nicholasville. Recently he made his home at Versailles with his brother, F. J. Smith.

The death of his wife a year ago, coupled with his own ill health, made him very despondent. He made his will Monday. He leaves two daughters.

Good Hunting Ground.

Washington Park, at Seattle Wash., a large tract of 300 acres of wooded land thickly studded by giant fir trees and with patches of ferns and under brush, lying within the city's limits, has become the home of thousands of wild fowl. Grouse, Mangolian pheasants and quail now make their home in this wooded park. A maze of automobile driveways extends through the park and the wild game birds have become so tame as to venture forth into plain sight for proffers of grain and crumbs.

Hunters and farmers have frightened them from their usual wild haunts and discovering that they were well protected and harbored in the park's inclosure they have become residents of a city. It is also believed that the extremely dry summer in the woods and on the mountains surrounding the city has caused them to seek lower altitudes where food was plentiful. The presence of the birds is a matter of great admiration by all the residents of Seattle.

Receivers for Burley Society.

Judge J. M. Benton, of the Clark County Circuit Court, Tuesday afternoon granted the petition to the plaintiffs, J. Ed Gaitskill and others, for a receiver for the Burley Tobacco Society, to have charge of the remaining funds from the sale of the 1906 and 1907 pooled tobacco crops. This sum is estimated by the court at approximately half a million. The suit was filed about two weeks ago and the court has been busy for several days hearing the testimony in the case. Among those to testify for the defendant were President Clarence Lebus, Secretary G. A. Brooks, Miss Alice Lloyd, of the publicity department, and Harry Vedder, the head bookkeeper.

At the night session of the court Judge Benton appointed Messrs. Lee S. Baldwin and Rufus Lisle receivers of the Burley Tobacco Society under his order filed in the afternoon. Mr. Baldwin is former County Clerk of Clark county and is now engaged in the jewelry business. Mr. Lisle was for many years connected with the Winchester Bank, but is now engaged in the lumber business.

The Burley Society will appeal to the Court of Appeals at once.

President Clarence Lebus gave out the following signed statement Tuesday night:

"To the members of the Burley Tobacco Society: Receivership does not include the 1909 crop. We won before without money and we can do it again."

A Steady Drain.

Sick Kidneys Weaken the Whole Body—Make You Ill, Languid and Depressed.

Sick kidneys weaken the body through the continual drainage of life giving albumen from the blood into the urine, and the substitution of poisonous uric acid that goes broadcast through the system, sowing the seeds of disease. Loss of albumen causes weakness, languor, depression. Uric poisoning causes rheumatic pain, nervousness, nausea, cricks in the back, gravel and kidney stones. The proper treatment is a kidney treatment and the best remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is good proof in the following testimonial:

Miss Elizabeth A. Crump, W. Main street, Carlisle, Ky., says: "Early in life I began to suffer from kidney complaint, due to working almost constantly in a sitting position. It would be almost impossible for me to describe the misery I endured from pains in my loins and at times I was so weak that I was almost unable to be about. After taking many remedies, without finding relief, I started to using Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me in every way and earned my strongest recommendation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
